

PALS Online System Icons

- Rectangular icons indicate ID status, Exempt Status, or Non-standard status and will appear to the right of the student's name.
- Circle icons indicate the assessment status and will appear to the left of the student's name.

	This student is currently identified as needing literacy intervention instruction, based on the most recent scores entered for PALS in English.
	The student was administered the PALS assessment under non-standard conditions using specific accommodations listed in the student's Individualized Education Plan (IEP).
	This student has been marked as exempt from taking the PALS assessment.
	Using Item-Level or Quick Scoring and standard administration, scores were entered for all tasks for this student.
	Using Item-Level or Quick Scoring and standard administration, scores were entered for all screening tasks for this student.
	Non-standard assessment given
	Not yet screened or assessed
	Student information needs to be validated