

June 2019 News

- We are ready to process your PALS renewal! Visit the Orders and Renewals page for pricing and options. (To determine how many students your school/district assessed this year, follow these instructions or contact us at support@palshelp.com.)
 - South Carolina, Wisconsin CESA, and West Virginia district representatives should have received renewal instructions and an order form link via email and can also find renewal updates on the drop-down for your state on the PALS Resource Center site menu.
 - If you would like to submit your renewal information but need us to hold off on processing until after July 1, simply put this request in the notes on your Google Form submission.
 - Do you have training needs for your staff? Contact Nancy Walsh-Boeder at support@palshelp.com to schedule a webinar or on-site training and get pricing information.

Reminders and Tips

- School-level and district-level PALS users can download PALS data for the entire school year in the form of a .csv file. From your home page in your PALS Online account, click on Download Data Files or Download Quick Check Data Files. You have access to these files for each school year that you administered PALS, as long as you continue to be a PALS customer.
- The PALS 2019-2020 calendar is now available! Find it here on our PALS Resource Center.

PALS Star Customers...YOU!

It is an honor and a privilege to serve and work with all of our PALS customers. As former educators, we know firsthand the challenges, triumphs, heartaches, and joys that you face on a daily basis. Hats off to all of you! We wish you a relaxing, safe, and restorative summer, whatever your plans. We look forward to picking up right back here with you for the 2019-2020 school year.
