

RENAISSANCE

PALS News

March 2023

Reminders and Tips

- The PALS Mid-Year score entry window in the PALS Online System will close on Friday, March 17. Reports will continue to be available until the spring score entry window opens on Monday, March 27.
- All materials needed for 2022-23 assessment, including the spring assessment window, were shipped when you received your initial shipment. If you discover at the last minute that you have a new teacher or have lost something, remember that PALS Teacher Sets (Form A and B) are now available to download as pdfs from the Materials section of your PALS Online account. Consumable materials for all grade levels and forms also continue to be available for download.
- District and school administrators are welcome to register here to join us on March 21 at 4:30 ET for a free webinar, "Preparing for PALS Retirement." The purpose of this webinar is to support you in preparing for PALS product retirement at the end of the 2022-23 school year. This webinar will also be offered in May.
- If you need to reach our PALS team for any reason, we're happy to help. Your best bet for a fast response is by email at support@palshelp.com. Please remember to include the following in your email: your name, your role, the name of your district, and a detailed description of your question or needs.
